

Bourn Parish Council

Volunteering Policy

Bourn Parish Council enlists the help of volunteers to allow the council to develop its services to the local community. Volunteers will not be introduced to replace paid staff of the Parish Council.

Bourn Parish Council

- Recognises that voluntary work brings benefits to volunteers themselves, to service users and to paid staff
- Will ensure that volunteers skills and experiences are matched to the role they are undertaking
- Expects that staff at all levels will work positively with volunteers
- Will ensure that volunteers receive appropriate training, support and equipment needed in order to carry out their role
- Reimburse reasonable expenses incurred. These expenses must be authorised in advance with the Council and are payable against a valid receipt
- Will endeavour to involve volunteers from a wide range of backgrounds and abilities

Recruitment

Recruitment of volunteers will be from all sections of the community and will be in line with Bourn Parish Council's Equal Opportunities Policy. Acceptance of an offer to volunteer will be subject to suitability to carry out the required task.

Volunteer Agreements and Voluntary Work Outlines

Volunteers will receive a role description, identifying the skills and experience that are needed. This will include full information about their chosen area of work and offer a clear idea of their responsibilities.

Volunteers will be expected to:

- Maintain and uphold the good name and reputation of the council
- Treat all members, officers, service users and members of the public with respect and dignity.
- Adhere to all relevant council policies and procedures, including its Safeguarding policy.
- Maintain, where appropriate, current Disclosure and Barring Service certification.

Induction and Training

Volunteers will be offered appropriate training and support. This will be delivered by a suitably qualified Councillor or member of the Parish Council staff and include a tour of the area of activity, an explanation of the volunteer's role and a description of required essential procedures such as timekeeping.

Support

Volunteers will be assigned a named contact person, usually the relevant Lead Councillor, who will provide advice and guidance as needed. This support might involve regular meetings to discuss any issues that may have arisen.

Feedback

Volunteers are encouraged to provide feedback where appropriate and will be consulted in decisions which affect them.

Insurance

Volunteers will be covered by insurance while carrying out agreed duties provided Council policy is adhered to. For this purpose, advance notice of any activity to be carried out will be required, including the nature of the work, the time and date of the work and the name of volunteer.

Health and Safety

Bourn Parish Council will take all reasonably practical steps to ensure the volunteers' health, safety and welfare while at work. The Volunteer will take all reasonably practical steps to ensure their health, safety and welfare while at work.

Equal Opportunities

Volunteers and staff will work in compliance with Bourn Parish Council's equal opportunities policy and will prevent discrimination on any grounds.

Problems

Bourn Parish Council has a complaints procedure to help deal with grievances that volunteers may have. Volunteers have the right to discuss any concerns they may have at any time, initially with their named contact.

Monitoring and Evaluation

Bourn Parish Council will systematically monitor and evaluate its use of volunteers with reference to this Volunteer Policy.
